champagne is unique in that it is the only wine region that focuses exclusively on sparkling wine. the regions cultivation dates back to at least the 5th century, where monks produced wine for the sacrament of the eucharist. the grape varieties used are chardonnay, pinot noir and meunier, and to this day mechanical harvesting is forbidden.

riesling

2015	henschke peggy's hill	eden valley, south australia	45
2013	plantagenet	mt barker, western australia	54
2015	koonowla estate	clare valley, south australia	56
2013	delatite late harvest	mt buller, victoria	58

2012	leeuwin estate art series	margaret river, western australia	75
2015	grosset alea	clare valley, south australia	89
2009	domaine paul blanck	alsace, france	96

riesling originated in the rhine valley of germany. our selection highlights the "terroir-expressive" quality of this varietal. in cooler climate areas, such as mosel, it has a fresh grape and apple fruit character and the naturally high acidity is often balanced with some sugar. in warmer climates such as the clare valley the wines have more citrus and peach fruit notes.

pinot gris

2014	josef chromy	relbia, tasmania	49
2014	mt difficulty roaring meg	central otago, new zealand	52
2015	red claw	mornington peninsula, victoria	58
2012	cave de beblenheim	alsace, france	64
2013	yabby lake vineyard	mornington peninsula, victoria	64

pinot grigio

2013	oakridge over the shoulder	yarra valley, victoria	46
2015	pizzini	king valley, victoria	49
2014	kellerei kaltern	alto adige, italy	66

pinot gris vs pinot grigio - pinot gris produces its best wines in alsace, though the full bodied, spicy alsatian style is copied well in regions including tasmania and marlborough. the wines tend to be rich-textured and oily, fairly high in alcohol and moderate to low acidity. pinot grigio, especially in north-east italy, the grapes are usually harvested earlier to retain more acidity and avoid the development of excessive fruitiness, which makes pinot grigio generally light and fairly neutral in character, with medium acidity.

2011	bouchard pere & fils la vigne chardonnay	burgundy, france	88
2006	beaune du chateau premier cru	burgundy, france	178

old world vs new world wine tasting is a great table topic. In very general terms old world wines tend to be more subtle in flavour and a little more reserved in profile. new world wines are notably more fruit expressive, whilst the most guiding influences of the old world style are that of tradition and terroir. the new world winemakers tend to be more open to experimentation and the emphasis is often placed on the winemaker and their techniques.

2009	chateau pey la tour bordeaux superieur	bordeaux, france	69
2012	petaluma merlot	coonawarra, south australia	125

bordeaux, in the south-west of France, is one of the world's most prolific wine regions. It also manages to rank among the most famous and prestigious. The majority of bordeaux wines are the dry, medium-bodied reds that made the region famous. merlot is the dominant red wine grape in the vineyards of bordeaux, followed closely by cabernet sauvignon and then cabernet franc. petit verdot, malbec and even carmenere are also permitted. when used in combination, these varieties are referred to as the famous "bordeaux blend". bordeaux's white wines are generally blends of sauvignon blanc, semillon and muscadelle. few regions can rival bordeaux in terms of its impact on the wine world. the few contenders include burgundy, champagne, rioja and chianti.

cabernet sauvignon

81's bubble bath

60

nv veuve ambal blanc de blanc - burgundy, france

blanc de blancs is made exclusively from white-wine grapes; the phrase blanc de blanc is french for "white of whites". the nose has floral notes, expressed on a background of vanilla and fresh almonds. the palate is subtle and elegant, acidity accents the freshness of the wine.

nv veuve clicquot brut - reims, france

the strength of the golden-yellow wine is immediately pleasing to the nose while it's complexity explodes on the palate. the initial notes of fruit are followed by more discreet aromas of brioche and vanilla when the wine is allowed to age in the bottle. a high proportion of priceless reserve wines ensures the continuity of the house style.

nv ruinart brut rosé - reims, france

a blend of chardonnay and pinot noir grapes from the oldest champagne house. the nose is subtle and fresh with tropical fruits and berries, followed by rose and pomegranate notes. the palate has distinctive freshly picked berries and a gentle effervescence, finishing with hints of pink grapefruit. a lovely balance of delightful freshness and a voluptuous body.

white nights

2013 dourthe no1 sauvignon blanc – bordeaux, france

freshness from lemon and grapefruit zest, with delicate notes of passion fruit, is accompanied by subtle nuances of box, menthol notes and hints of freshly cut hay. on the palate, the wine is very well-balanced, concentrated in structure, revealing good acidity and a generous, full-flavoured fleshiness. the development of the aromas on the palate is characterised by a fruity freshness, which ends with a long, lingering finish.

2015 tai nui sauvignon blanc – marlborough, new zealand

stone fruits, citrus and tropical notes leap from the glass with subtle herbal grassy characters in the background. the palate is rich and mouth filling with flavours of white stone fruit, grapefruit and lemongrass gently interwoven with tropical fruits and sweet herbal notes, leading to a sustained and mouthwatering finish.

2015 cape mentelle sauvignon blanc semillon - margaret river, western australia

aromas of white melon, lime, grapefruit, honeysuckle and blackcurrant. juicy clean and fresh, a refreshing balance of rich fruit flavours of limes, passionfruit and lychee. the texture is creamy and the finish bright, intense, long and elegant.

roll out the red carpet

2013 gerard bertrand reserve pinot noir – burgundy, france

grown in the coolest altitude vineyards of burgundy, an iconic region for pinot noir, which results in a medium bodied wine. the nose is fruity with aromas of ripe cherry, wild raspberry and spices. the palate has ripe cherry fruit and wild raspberry flavours, notes of nutmeg and brown spice with silky tannins and an elegant, balanced finish.

2013 jed wines malbec – mendoza, argentina

mendoza is the iconic region for the malbec grape and the biggest wine producing region in south america. on the nose you can pick up rose water and violet characters, underpinned by red berry aromas of sweet cherry and fresh blue berries. the palate has bright cherry and blueberry flavours which combine well with integrated oak. the mouth feel is fine and delicate, supported by fine ripe tannins. medium bodied in style with an elegant finish.

2014 angove the crest cabernet sauvignon - mclaren vale, south australia

the cabernet sauvignon grapes have a thicker skin with less flesh, which contributes more tannins to the wine. the nose has blackcurrant and mint aromas with a hint of sandalwood. blackcurrant juice is apparent on the palate with soft full tannins which fill the mouth, and an aftertaste of mint with french oak underlining the moreish finish.

“a meal without wine is like life without love”
